Visitor Guide

Hauser & Wirth Somerset is open from 10 am – 5 pm, Tue – Sun

Entrance to the galleries and garden is free, however we welcome donations to our chosen charities
Hauser & Wirth Somerset is a multi-purpose arts centre which acts as a location for experiencing art, architecture, and the remarkable Somerset landscape. Centred around a core belief in conservation, education and sustainability, we hope to inspire new dialogues and energise our visitors to make meaningful connections with contemporary art and our natural surroundings.

Dining at Roth Bar & Grill is available for breakfast, lunch and dinner. We recommend booking in advance. Food and drink can also be purchased from Durslade Farm Shop.
Accessibility

All areas are accessible for wheelchair users, as well as disabled toilets.

Families

We welcome families to explore the gallery and garden, but ask that you do not touch or climb on the sculptures, or pick the flowers and plants.

Dogs

We have a sheltered kennel in the car park, where dogs are welcome to wait. We cannot permit dogs unless they are assistance dogs.

Group Visits

Pre-booking is essential for all group visits. For more information email education@hauserwirth.com
Car Parking

There is a car park on-site, with parking space for coaches and one dedicated space for wheelchair parking.

Garden Pond

Children must be supervised at all times, as we have many ponds.
Current Exhibition

‘Henry Moore. Sharing Form’
Until Sun 4 Sep 2022

Hauser & Wirth Somerset presents a major exhibition of works by Henry Moore, curated by Hannah Higham of the Henry Moore Foundation in collaboration with the artist’s daughter Mary Moore. A comprehensive survey spanning six decades extends across all five gallery spaces, in addition to an open-air presentation of seminal works.

The exhibition is organised with support from the Henry Moore Foundation.
